

Trillium: In 1937 Ontario chose the white trillium as its Provincial floral emblem. The white trillium blooms in the spring, usually in late April and May. This flower starts off with a white bloom, but turns pinkish as it ages. The trillium also grows berries as it matures.

