

Figure Skating: For a land covered in ice half the time it would make sense for Canada to dominate in all winter sports. That makes it hard to believe that Barbara Ann Scott was the first Canadian to win the figure skating gold medal... and not until 1947.

