Terry Fox: A hero whose determination and generosity inspires many the world over. In 1980 Terry began a cross Canada awareness run having lost one leg to cancer. Terry was forced to abandon his effort after covering 5,373 km. Cancer took his life in June 1981 at the age of 22.